

CASLV PTO MEETING
Oct. 26, 2019

- Treasurer's Report
  - Tamarus is looking to spend the money for Chrome Books and space saving furniture. Also looking at "play walls." The request will be submitted by Dec. 1.
  - Sandy Ridge is also looking at Chrome Books.
  - Currently we have:
    - $38,105 in checking
    - $21,693 savings
    - $10,525 in Paypal (not including what's processing)

- Board openings for Windmill.

- Box tops: the group discussed who could pick up/cut box tops.

- Bulletin boards: the group discussed creating one long board for Tamarus and keeping it up throughout the year.

- Sock Hop gala: April 18. 50s-styled dress. There will be dance lessons and contests. Golf during the day and 6pm at night. Donation request letters to be sent out by Nov. 1. They are still seeking an emcee.

- Campus reports:
  - Tamarus:
    - Book Fair: closed at $8,500, CASLV to receive 50%
    - Teacher appreciation: completed for the quarter
    - Booknic was great
    - Movie Night: debating a Spring movie night event.

  - Windmill
    - Book Fair: $5,100 earned, adding funds to the Fun Run. Will fund new chairs for the higher grades and potential shaded areas for the backyard.
    - Box Tops: need a volunteer to take it over for the campus.
    - Membership Contest: need to finalize details for this.
    - Movie Night: debating a Spring movie night event.
    - Planning a Q4 teacher's appreciation event.
    - Coffee with the Principal: ongoing.
    - Kona Ice is doing well.
    - Windmill is planning to dress for Halloween.

  - Sandy Ridge
    - Falloween Festival: gross for wristband funds: $9,300

- Mandatory volunteer: the group discussed making volunteering mandatory. PTO wants to discuss bringing this to CASLV's board. Next steps will include retrieving parents guidelines at fellow charters, e.g. Pinecrest, Doral.
- Chipotle results: Just under $200
- Freddy's is the next family date – Nov. 6, starting at 3 p.m.
- Glittering Lights: CASLV will get $ back if parents go on designated nights: Dec. 1, 5 and 8.
- Next PTO meeting: Monday, Nov. 18 at 6:15 p.m. at Sandy Ridge.